MWC FOOTBALL AUGUST 19, 2010

Monmouth Favored For 3-Peat in MWC Football

Ripon, Wis. – The Midwest Conference signals callers will look very familiar this season as eight of the ten schools return quarterbacks, which includes 2009 Midwest Conference Offensive Player of the Year Alex Tanney of Monmouth College. After going undefeated in the past two seasons league coaches tabbed the Fighting Scots as the favorite to take home their third consecutive Midwest Conference title in the 2010 MWC Football Preseason Coaches Poll. The Fighting Scots return eight All-MWC players and also return reigning Coach of the Year Steve Bell. St. Norbert, the last school not named Monmouth to win the championship, finished second in the poll as they earned the three remaining first place votes.

Ripon was the clear-cut third place finisher in the poll and will be the only team looking for a new quarterback as last year's starter Matt Miller will be out for the season due to a knee injury. Despite the injury Ripon garnered no lower than a fourth place vote from any coach in the league. Beloit and Carroll will try to crack into the top three of the conference after finishing fourth and fifth last season, were only points apart in the fourth and fifth spot of the poll, while Illinois College, Lake Forest, Knox, Grinnell and Lawrence round out the poll.

The league will look very different as 14 of the 28 All-MWC First Team award winners were lost to graduation, along with 13 of the 29 All-MWC Second Team selections. Ripon's TJ Pierce will return after leading the league in rushing and picking up All-MWC First Team honors. A trio of linebackers return for the 2010 campaign after finishing atop the MWC statistics in tackling. Beloit's Tony Baratti, Grinnell's Marquis Bradley and Illinois College's Ricky Padilla finished second, third and sixth, respectively, last season in tackles while they combined for seven sacks.

Chad Eisele takes over at Knox for Andy Gibbons after 13 years for the Prairie Fire while Jeff Pedersen will take over at Grinnell for Max Hawsey. St. Norbert's Jim Purtill will have his first shot at claiming his 100th career win as he needs nine wins to reach the century mark. Purtill would join Ripon's Ron Ernst (118 wins) as the only active MWC coaches to reach 100 wins.

1. Monmouth Fighting Scots	2009 Record: 10-1, 9-0
Base Offense: No Huddle Multiple	Base Defense: Multiple
Returning Starters (Offense/Defense): 6/6
Returning All-MWC (Offense/Defense): 3/5

Steve Bell takes the helm for his 11th season after claiming back-to-back MWC titles in the past two years. Bell has led the Fighting Scots to 45 wins over the past five seasons three times winning 10 games. Monmouth is led by a high-potent offense which led the MWC averaging 45.3 points per game, five times scoring more than 50 points. Preseason All-American quarterback Alex Tanney fuels the offensive attack as he returns after earning two MWC Offensive Player of the Year awards. Tanney ranked fourth in the nation last year in total offense as he was responsible for over 348 yards per contest. Tanney also led the MWC in yards (3,836), touchdown passes (44), completion percentage (70.0) and completions (339). Monmouth also returns their top two wide receivers in senior Matt Shepherd (96 rec, 1,006 yards, 9 TD) and senior Mike Blodgett (74 rec, 970 yards, 9 TD) to compliment Tanney's offensive attack. Tanney will take snaps behind a line that lost four starters due to graduation. Monmouth returns two All-MWC defensive selections in junior linebacker Adam Hoste (83 tackles, 1.5 sacks) and senior defensive lineman Peyton Lumzy (52 tackles, 0.5 sacks) who will lead a defense that surrendered only 12.5 points per contest in 2009. Erik Weber (40 tackles, 3 INT) returns to headline the secondary, while linebackers Cory Bishop (67 tackles, 2 sacks) and Marcus Ruff (64 tackles, 0.5 sack) will solidify the defense.

10. Lawrence Vikings 2009 Record: 2-8, 1-8
 Base Offense: Spread Base Defense: 4-2-5
 Returning Starters (Offense/Defense): 6/5
 Returning All-MWC (Offense/Defense): 1/1

Lawrence is coming off a 2009 season which saw them drop eight of their first nine games before ending the season on a high note with a season closing win over Minnesota Morris. Sixth year Head Coach Chris Howard looks to build off the win last season with a lot of new faces on the Lawrence roster. The Vikings return only 13 starters (six offense, five defense, two special teams), including being the only one of two teams in the MWC looking for a new quarterback. Junior running back Ben Hartman (64 car, 323 yards) returns as the teams leading rusher although he did not find the end zone last season. Senior Jeremiah Johnson (179 rush yards, 224 receiving yards, 3 TD) also returns as the team's second leading rusher and the team's leading receiver after the departure of Nate Nelson, the teams leading receiver last season. The Vikings return last years leading tackler, senior linebacker Greg Pater (77 tackles, 1.5 sacks), along with senior safety Jeff Nichols (58 tackles, 4 INT) to lead the Lawrence defensive attack.
